Data Protection Notice

Processing of personal data for events organised or co-organised by the European Union Agency for Railways – TSI Open Days Warsaw

1. Introduction

This notice explains the reason for the processing of your personal data in the context of the TSI Open Days in Warsaw from 20-21 January 2025, organised by the European Union Agency for Railways (ERA). It explains the way we collect, handle, and ensure protection of all personal data provided, how that information is used and what rights you have in relation to your personal data. It also specifies the contact details of the responsible Data Controller with whom you may exercise your rights, the Data Protection Officer, and the European Data Protection Supervisor.

Your personal data are processed in accordance with Regulation \(EU\) 2018/1725 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 23 October 2018 on the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data by the Union institutions, bodies, offices and agencies and on the free movement of such data and repealing Regulation (EC) No 45/2001 and Decision No 1247/2002/EC.

Following the requirements of a mandatory accreditation system introduced by the Polish Government for the events organized under the Polish Presidency, ERA is gathering additional data, which will be introduced by a staff member of the Polish National Safety Authority, UTK, into that accreditation system. For the processing of the accreditation data a dedicated Data Protection Notice is available.

For more information about the processing in question, you are invited to contact ERA through the addresses provided in section “Contacts”.

2. Controller of the processing operation

- a) The Controller determining the purpose and means of the processing of your personal data is the European Union Agency for Railways (ERA). The entities responsible for managing the personal data processing are as follows:
the Head of Monitoring, Analysis, Research and Stakeholders Unit, at ERA, for the event organisation.
The Polish authorities for the accreditation system.
- b) The processor on behalf of ERA is Adria Congrex as ERA contractor for processing the registration data.

3. Purpose of the processing operation

The EU Agency for Railways collects and processes your personal data to provide you with information about the TSI Open Days in Warsaw (before, during and after). It also processes your personal data to manage your registration.

Audio-visual recording of the speakers, organisers, and participants, as well as photographs of the speakers and panoramic photographs of participants and organisers will be taken and published in the context of the event through the Agency communication channels (e.g., website, YouTube, social media, etc.).

Participants that do not wish to be part of the above recording/publishing activities have the possibility to object to this processing. Objecting participants will sit in specific areas and will obtain a special badge.

You can give your consent via a clear affirmative act by ticking the box(es) on the online registration form or in the provided consent form.

The data controller shall not be held accountable for any processing of personal data that you might carry out on your own initiative during or after the event.

Finally, ERA or contractors may collect feedback on the event from the participants using different tools, but always ensuring anonymous response.

5. Recipients of personal data

Access to your personal data is provided to the EU Agency for Railways staff which is responsible for carrying out this processing operation, to Agency contractor and Polish authorities. Such staff abide by statutory, and when required, additional confidentiality agreements.

All recipients of the data are reminded of their obligation not to use the data for any further purpose other than the one for which they were collected.

The personal information collected will not be communicated to third parties, except where necessary for the purposes outlined and to the entities identified in this Data Protection Notice. Personal data is not intended to be transferred to a third country outside the EU, unless explicitly mentioned.

However, upon publication, any individual could be a potential recipient of the personal data published, e.g., in social media, YouTube, Web.

6. Your Rights as data subject

You have the right to access your personal data, which is the right to obtain confirmation about your data processed by the Agency and the right to ask for rectification of any inaccurate or incomplete personal data. You have also the right to object to the processing or request the erasure of your personal data, which will be implemented as soon as your specific request will have been deemed legitimate.

Generally, you may withdraw your consent at any time by writing at AODMars@era.europa.eu, and that will not affect the lawfulness of the processing of your personal data prior to such withdrawal.

However, published materials based on prior written consent cannot be withdrawn, due to the public availability of contents through web communication channels, (Agency's website, YouTube and social media channels).

If you have any queries concerning the processing of your personal data, you may address them to the data Controller. You will find the address in the Contacts below.

7. Legal basis for the processing operation

The legal basis for the processing is:

- Agency Regulation \(EU\) 2016/796
- Single Programming Document
- MB Decision n° 333 adopting ERA multi-annual Communication and Dissemination Plan \(2024-2028\).

Lawfulness:

The above data processing operation is carried out in accordance with Art. 5 (1)(a) and 5 (1)(d) of Regulation (EC) 2018/1725: processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest and upon consent.

8. Time limit for storing the data

All personal data are kept by the processor for 6 months following the conference date.

9. Contacts

All your requests concerning your data protection rights should be addressed to the Data Controller at AODMars@era.europa.eu. In case you have any questions related to the protection of your personal data, you can also contact the ERA Data Protection Officer at Dataprotectionofficer@era.europa.eu. You have at any time the right of recourse to the European Data Protection Supervisor at edps@edps.europa.eu.
