

Making the railway system
work better for society.

PERSONAL INFORMATION Øystein Ravik

POSITION IN THE
EUROPEAN UNION AGENCY
FOR RAILWAYS

Norwegian Government representative to ERA Management Board

---

WORK EXPERIENCE
(from _2000_ to __present__)

Deputy Director General

Norwegian Railway Authority

2011- present: Head of department responsible for granting Licenses and Safety Certificates, Supervision of Rail Safety and Security, Safety Management including follow-up of incidents and accidents and coordination of International affairs.

2004-2011 Deputy Director General

Head of department responsible for granting Applications for Placing into service of Infrastructure and Vehicles, granting Licenses and Safety Certificates, Safety Management processes and coordination of International Affairs

2001-2004 Section Head Safety and Technology

Responsible for evaluations of Safety Management Systems and Risk Analysis

Statoil ASA

1986-2000: Various positions related to Safety Management and Project Management in Development projects onshore and offshore, various positions related to Safety Management in offshore operations and as corporate adviser on Safety Management and Risk Analysis.

Aker Engineering AS

1983-1986: Safety Engineer

EDUCATION AND TRAINING

MSc in Mechanical Engineering from The University of Trondheim (NTH) in 1983, specialising in Safety and Reliability Technology.

---

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

MEMBERSHIPS

---

OTHER